Headline: Library Hosts Mountain Biking 101 With Local Novice Richard Shields

As lead up to the Tour de Ranch, which will be held at the Flying E on November 7th, the library will be hosting a presentation with local cyclist and novice, Richard Shields to share his expertise on the subject this Friday, September 25th at 10:00 a.m. in the library Kid's Ranch area. Please note that all physical distancing and CDC guidelines will be followed. Masks are required.

Mr. Shields will share the history of biking, current trends in the biking world, how to purchase the right bike and equipment, and model the different kinds of bikes and accessories. This presentation is free to the public and all ages are welcome to attend.

Do not forget to enjoy the pre-ride for the Tour De Ranch this weekend. Try out the course at the Flying E Ranch on Sunday, September 27th from 6:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. the cost is $10 per car to be paid at location. Cash only please. For more information about the Tour De Ranch, please visit and register on the Town of Wickenburg Special Events page at <http://wickenburgaz.org/tourderanch>

For further information regarding the presentation by Richard Shields, please contact the Wickenburg Public Library at (928) 684-2665.
